

Regulations of the 65th International Short Film Festival Oberhausen, 1 — 6 May 2019

1. The International Short Film Festival Oberhausen is an independent festival accredited by FIAPF, the International Federation of Film Producers Associations, and organized according to FIAPF regulations and the regulations of the Festival. The Festival presents: Competitions (International, German, International Children's and Youth Film, NRW and the MuVi Award with separate regulations) as well as curated programmes. All submitted films will be previewed for every appropriate Festival programme. The deadlines for submissions to the competitions are 1 February 2019 (date of receipt) for international productions and 15 February 2019 (date of receipt) for German productions. Submissions must be made via the Festival website. Repeated submissions are not possible. A confirmation of the receipt of a submission cannot be provided. Submissions cannot be withdrawn from the competition after 15 February 2019 (date of receipt of notification). For submissions to the International Competition the German festival premiere of the work must be guaranteed. No entry fees are charged.
2. Organizer of the Festival is the non-profit company Internationale Kurzfilmtage Oberhausen gGmbH which is owned by the City of Oberhausen. Main sponsor of the Festival is the State of North Rhine-Westphalia.
3. International Competition: The International Competition is meant to present artistic developments, in particular new tendencies, in international short film production for discussion, regardless of national representation. Admitted are works of all genres not exceeding a length of 35 minutes. In rare and exceptional cases the selection committee reserves the right to admit films of longer duration. Only works are eligible that have not been shown at any other German festival before Oberhausen. Productions entering the International Competition must have been completed after 1 January 2018. Entries to the International Competition must be submitted via our website no later than 1 February 2019. The entries can also be considered for the International Children's and Youth Film Competition. In addition, the Festival reserves the right to select films that have won prizes at other festivals for inclusion in the programme "Award Winning Films of Other Festivals". Eligible for selection for the International Competition are works whose country of production (seat of the production company) is not Germany. Admitted screening formats are 35 mm, 16 mm, Super 8 and DCP. Details will be checked with the filmmakers after the competition entries have been selected.
4. German Competition: Eligible for the German Competition are works produced in Germany (seat of the production company). Admitted are works of all genres not exceeding a length of 45 minutes. In rare and exceptional cases the selection committee reserves the right to admit films of longer duration. Productions entering the German Competition must have been completed after 1 January 2018. Entries to the German Competition must be submitted via our website no later than 15 February 2019. The entries to the German Competition can also be considered for the International Competition, the International Children's and Youth Film Competition, the NRW Competition and the MuVi Award. In addition, the Festival reserves the right to select films that have won prizes at other festivals for inclusion in the programme "Award Winning Films of Other Festivals". Admitted screening formats are 35 mm, 16 mm, Super 8 and DCP. Details will be checked with the filmmakers after the competition entries have been selected. A German festival premiere is not required for participation in the German Competition.
5. NRW Competition: Eligible are works produced in North Rhine-Westphalia (seat of the production company). Otherwise, the regulations of the German Competition apply.
6. International Children's and Youth Film Competition: For works produced in Germany, see the requirements of the German Competition. For international contributions, see the requirements of the International Competition, with one exception: films in this competition are not required to be German festival premieres.
7. MuVi Award: The MuVi Award has its own, separate regulations.
8. Selection: All submitters will be informed of the selection results in mid-March 2019. If the ownership of a work is transferred to a successor in title after the selection has been made, the successor's permission for the film to take part in the competition will have to be conveyed to the Festival. No hire/licence fees will be paid for competition films.
9. Open Screening: Eligible are works submitted to the 65th International Short Film Festival Oberhausen in accordance with Festival regulations which were not selected for competition and are no longer than 15 minutes. The work must be presented in person by the filmmaker (the Festival will not bear any travel and accommodation expenses). Registrations for the Open Screening may not be submitted until after the competition selection has been announced in mid-March. The admitted screening format is DCP. Each filmmaker may present only one work. The Open Screening programme slot is limited and the films will be added to the line-up in the order of registration. All submitters will be informed of the precise application dates with the announcement of the competition selections in mid-March 2019.
10. Dispatch of selected contributions: All screening copies and files of films invited to the competitions must arrive in Oberhausen no later than 3 April 2019. It is recommended that contributors have the documents of reimportation (required for the customs authorities) issued before the films are shipped. Shipments from non-EU member states must be clearly labelled

The awards and premiums will be given to the filmmakers. (as of 1 August 2018)
15. Video Library: All submitted preview links, basic information and a contact email of every film are automatically entered in the Video Library and made available for individual viewing during and after the Festival unless stated otherwise in a written instruction to be submitted to the Festival no later than 29 March 2019 (date of receipt). The Video Library is password protected. Access is granted only to accredited visitors during the Festival in Oberhausen as well as online until 10 June 2019. All accredited guests have free access to the Video Library. An online market catalogue will be published containing short synopses and password protected contact addresses for the submitted contributions. The Festival reserves the right to make competition films available to selected industry experts for individual viewing after the Festival.
16. By submitting your film/s to the International Short Film Festival Oberhausen you are authorising us to process the data entered by you for the purpose of organising the activities of the International Short Film Festival Oberhausen (festival, distribution, archive). This authorisation provides the legal base for processing your data (art. 6 sect.1a, European General Data Protection Regulation). Your data will be kept for no longer than is necessary for the purposes referred to above and will not be passed on to third parties. You will find more detailed information about data protection and your rights according to the GDPR on www.kurzfilmtage.de at “Data Protection”.
17. These regulations are available in German and English. In case of doubt the German version applies.
