

Regulations of the 69th International Short Film Festival Oberhausen, 26 April — 1 May 2023

1. The International Short Film Festival Oberhausen is an independent festival accredited by FIAPF, the International Federation of Film Producers Associations, and organized according to FIAPF regulations and the regulations of the Festival. The Festival presents: Competitions (International, German, International Children's and Youth Film, NRW), German MuVi Award (with separate regulations), as well as curated programmes. All submitted films will be previewed for every appropriate festival programme. The deadline for submissions to the competitions is 1 February 2023 (date of receipt). Submissions must be made via the Festival website. A confirmation of the receipt of a submission cannot be provided. Repeated submissions are not possible. Submissions cannot be withdrawn from the competition once the submitter has confirmed their participation in writing (see article 9). The submission of the first five works by one submitter is free of charge. From the sixth submission onwards, a handling fee of 20 euros per film will be charged. This applies to all competitions.
2. Organizer of the Festival is the non-profit company Internationale Kurzfilmtage Oberhausen gGmbH, which is owned by the City of Oberhausen. Main supporter of the Festival is the State of North Rhine-Westphalia.
3. International Competition: The International Competition is meant to present artistic developments, in particular new tendencies, in international short film production for discussion, regardless of national representation. Admitted are works of all genres not exceeding a length of 35 minutes. In rare and exceptional cases, the selection committee reserves the right to admit films of longer duration. Only works are eligible that have not been shown at any German festival before Oberhausen. Productions entering the International Competition must have been completed after 1 January 2022. Entries to the International Competition must be submitted via our website no later than 1 February 2023. Eligible entries can also be considered for the International Children's and Youth Film Competition (no festival premiere required). In addition, the Festival reserves the right to select films that have won prizes at other festivals for inclusion in the programme "Award Winners of Other Festivals". Eligible for selection for the International Competition are works whose country of production (seat of the production company) is not Germany. This includes co-productions with Germany. Co-productions with Germany must be submitted for the International Competition and will be considered for the International as well as for the German Competition. Admitted screening formats are 35 mm, 16 mm, Super 8 and DCP. Details will be checked with the filmmakers after the competition entries have been selected.
4. German Competition: Eligible for the German Competition are works produced or co-produced in Germany (seat of the production company). Co-productions with Germany must be submitted for the International Competition and will be considered for the German as well as for the International Competition. Admitted are works of all genres not exceeding a length of 45 minutes. In rare and exceptional cases, the selection committee reserves the right to admit films of longer duration. Productions entering the German Competition must have been completed after 1 January 2022. Entries to the German Competition must be submitted via our website no later than 1 February 2023. Eligible entries to the German Competition can also be considered for the International Children's and Youth Film Competition, the NRW Competition and the German MuVi Award. In addition, the Festival reserves the right to select films that have won prizes at other festivals for inclusion in the programme "Award Winners of Other Festivals". Admitted screening formats are 35 mm, 16 mm, Super 8 and DCP. Details will be checked with the filmmakers after the competition entries have been selected. A German festival premiere is not necessary for participation in the German Competition.
5. NRW Competition: Eligible are works produced in North Rhine-Westphalia (seat of the production company). Otherwise, the regulations of the German Competition apply.
6. International Children's and Youth Film Competition: For works produced in Germany, see the requirements of the German Competition. For international entries, the regulations of the International Competition apply, with one exception: the works do not have to be German festival premieres. In addition to the screenings on site, the selected films of the Children's and Youth Competition will be made available to educational institutions in programmes for viewing in password-protected online screening rooms
7. German MuVi Award: This competition will be organized with its own separate set of regulations.
8. Presentation of prize-winners: As part of the partnership between the 69th International Short Film Festival Oberhausen and the Filmchief screening platform, the prize-winning films will be made available to the general audience online on 1 and 2 May for 24 hours, worldwide, and through a password-protected connection, within the framework of the presentation of the prize-winning films. A proper request will be sent to the rights owners of the selected films after the written confirmation of their participation in order to obtain their authorization to present their film within the aforementioned framework.
9. Selection: All submitters will be informed of the selection results in mid-March 2023. A selected work may not be withdrawn from the competition once the submitter has confirmed their participation in writing. If the ownership of a work is transferred to a successor in title after the selection has been made, the successor's permission for the film to take part in the competition will have to be conveyed to the Festival. No licence fees will be paid for competition films.
10. Dispatch of selected contributions: All screening copies and files of films invited to the competitions must arrive in Oberhausen no later than 4 April 2023. It is recommended that contributors have the documents of reimportation (required for the customs authorities) issued before the films are shipped. Shipments from non-EU member states must be clearly labelled "For temporary, cultural purposes only. No commercial value." Those dispatches must also be accompanied by a pro forma invoice amounting to a maximum of 20 € (under no circumstances should the amount of the actual production costs be given, even if they were higher). Costs arising from wrong declarations will be charged to the sender.

15. Video Library: All submitted viewing links, basic information and contact emails for the films are automatically part of the Video Library. The viewing links are available to accredited persons for individual viewing, unless the festival receives written instructions to the contrary by 30 March 2023 (date of receipt). The Video Library is password-protected; only accredited persons have access on site during the Festival. Access is free for accredited persons. An online market catalogue will be published with a brief description of the contributions and the password-protected contact addresses. Participation in the Video Library is free of charge. After the Festival, competition entries will be made available online to accredited professionals, password protected, for individual viewing purposes in the online Video Library until 31 May 2023. In accordance with FIAPF regulations, the Festival undertakes to obtain consent from rights holders for any additional use of their film.
16. By submitting your film/s to the International Short Film Festival Oberhausen you are authorizing us to process the data entered by you for the purpose of organizing the activities of the International Short Film Festival Oberhausen (festival, distribution, archive). This authorization provides the legal base for processing your data (art. 6 sect.1a, European General Data Protection Regulation). Your data will be stored for no longer than is necessary for the purposes referred to above and will not be passed on to third parties. You will find more detailed information about data protection and your rights according to the GDPR on www.kurzfilmtage.de at "Data Protection".
17. These regulations are available in German and English. In case of doubt the German version applies.
